LATE DALE SCOTT BURIED AT ARDEN

Funeral of Victim of Lightning Was Very Largely Attended

July 5 1928
Arden, July 7—The funeral of Dale Scott, the young man of Arden, who was killed by lightning at Leaside was held here on Thursday. The service was conducted in the United Church by Rev. Mr. Paton, assisted by Rev. Mr. Redding, Anglican clergyman. The church was filled, a great many not being able to secure seats. The flowers were lovely.

Deceased was in the prime of life and was well liked by a host of friends. He leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Scott, and brother James, of Arden, and two sisters, Mrs. M. Woodcock, Belleville, and Letta at home. The sorrowing ones have the sympathy of the whole community in their very sad bereavement. The remains were placed in the family plot at Arden.

Hon. W. D. Black attended the funeral of the late Dale Scott, at A. B. Carscallen, Tamworth, and a great many from outside places.

YACHT TOWN, N.Y., July 7. — John D. Rockefeller will celebrate his 89th birthday anniversary quietly to-morrow on his estate at Pocantico Hills overlooking the Hudson River.

The former Standard Oil magnate, one of the wealthiest men in the world, is enjoying excellent health and takes particular pleasure in his daily round of golf.
